VOL. 53—No. 44 JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY MORNING, FEB. 20, 1919 TEN PAGES—THREE CENTS

TTEMPT MADE O ASSASSINATE RENCH PREMIER

even Shots Fired By Anarchist, Three Taking Effect

PARIS, Feb. 19.—(By The Associated Press)—Premier Georges lemenceau, characterized by loyd George as "France's grand oung man," was attacked today w an anarchist, Emile Cottin, nown as "Milou." Seven shots ere fired, three of which strack ie premier. One bullet lodged the muscles of the shoulder, enetrating deeply, but, so far as at present known, not injuring ie spine or penetrating to the ngs. Two bullets bruised the ght arm and hand while two ther bullets are reported to have assed thru the premier's clothig.

At the time of the attempted ssassination, M. Clemenceau had ist left his home to drive in a otor car to a conference with ol. Edward M. House of the merican peace delegation and rthur J. Balfour, British secreary for foreign affairs. Tho leeding profusely, M. Clemenceau as able to return to his home, here he reassured the members f his houshold and waved aside nxious inquirers with:

"It is nothing."

Latest reports from his attendnts were that his condition was atisfactory and that he was heerful thruout the day despite ccasional fits of coughing.

For the present it has been decided by the surgeons that extracion of the bullet may not be ecessary and arrangements have een made to take Radiographs f the injured parts.

Cottin, whom the police beieved to be a somewhat harmless erson associating with anarchists nd aiding in their propaganda, eclared that he had planned to ill the premier because M. Clemenceau "was the enemy of huanity and was preparing for another war."

Take X-Ray Examination

After temporary aid had been iven M. Clemenceau, Professors osset and Tuffier, of the Univerity of Paris were hastily sumoned and had a hurried consulation. They decided upon an -ray examination. One of the urgeons said that perhaps it ould not be necessary to remove he bullet as no bones were shatered and no important blood vesel had been touched, altho the ound was quite deep and bled rofusely.

Upon emerging from his car M. lemenceau passed his wounded and over his face, leaving the ace smeared with blood and this as the reason for the first report hat he had been wounded in the ead.

Marshal Foch arrived about ten 'clock, and later was joined by Marshal Petain. They remained or a considerable period.

Premier Clemenceau was quite heerful, in spite of occasional its of coughing. He declared to embers of his household that he hought he knew his assailant. He ad seen him last evening when ntering his home, but the man ad slunk away.

Henry Moulin, a barber's asistant who was the first to seize he assassin, described his experence in a somewhat flustered anner:

"I kept running after the murderer," he said, "but as I ran I was greatly puzzled what to do with him once I reached him. But when I saw him fling his revolver way, it gave me courage, and I an faster, closing in on him, and took one good swipe at him and couple of kicks before a detective arrived."

Moulin is a strong youth of bout 16. He seemed to feel very proud as he posed for photographers, and blushed as girls cheered and kissed him for his bravery.

Policeman Wounded

Policeman Goursat, who was wounded in the right eye, said:

"The bullet which struck me went thru the limousine as I was directly in line with the assassin who was rushing towards the premier's car.

"This man surely was not a Frenchman; his whole appearance is much like the Nihilists who are familiar on the left bank of the Seine."

Huge crowds gathered around the premier's house and kept repeating:

"This is a Russian."

Despite the fact that they were informed that the premier's assallant was French, they refused to believe it.

At police headquarters The Associated Press was informed that Cottin has a record there, with Bertillion measurements.

Cottin lived at Mont Rouge, a suburb of Paris, in a small hotel which has long been under police supervision, as it is frequented by anarchists. These persons, however, are more notorious for spreading literature and making speeches than for acts of violence. The police refuse to say whether they believe the attack on the premier was the result of a plot or merely an individual act. They are working however, apparently on the theory that it was a plot as the little hotel was encircled and a thoro search of the

Assailant Tells of Plans To Take Clemenceaus Life

PARIS, Feb. 19.—(By The Associated Press.)—Describing his attack on the premier, Emile Cottin said:

"When I reached Clemenceau's house I saw it was guarded, and so decided to make an attempt further on, as the corner of the Rue Franklin and the Boulevard Delessert. There I hid, awaiting the automobile. When I saw the car I advanced and fired sideways, the first bullet piercing two windows. Then as the car continued to advance I ran after it and continued firing until my revolver was exhausted. Most of the bullets hit the car. It seems to me that it was the last, or last but one, which hit the premier.

"About seven months ago I thought of killing Clemenceau as the greatest enemy of humanity. I determined to carry out this project a few days ago and for this purpose went to the Rue Franklin to see how I could attack the premier with the least possible risk. I had taken care to find out his habits and identify his house, which seemed very simple for such a personality, and very ugly."

Cottin boasts of having read many books on Social Science and claims sole responsibility for his act.

"I wished the man who was preparing for another war to disappear," he said. "I am an integral anarchist, a friend of man, not excepting the Germans and a friend of humanity and fraternity."

A police official told the Associated Press that Cottin had informed him that he had gotten his first good look at M. Clemenceau at a reception in honor of the King of Italy.

"From that moment the old man's doom was sealed," said Cottin to the police. "Why did I choose this day? Well there is always a red letter day in a man's life. This was my red letter day."

Cottin was under the escort of three plain clothes men when he arrived at police headquarters.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19—Lieutenant Benjamin Davis, of Plymouth, Pa., attached to the medical corps and Ensign Paul Beck of New York City, both members of the naval reserve force are under arrest at New York awaiting court martial in connection with charges of bribery and graft in the third naval district.

In making this announcement tonight Secretary Daniels revealed that the arrest of a third naval officer had been ordered.

According to information given out at the department today a preliminary report of department officials who are conducting a searching investigation of the whole matter, mentioned specifically a bribe of $1,000 paid to secure a favorable medical report on an applicant who could not pass the naval physical requirements and another bribe of $500 alleged to have been paid to secure a desired detail for another man. The names of the men alleged to have paid and received these sums were not revealed.

DISCLOSURES TO CHANGE COURT MARTIAL SYSTEM

Washington, Feb. 19.—Further disclosures of his efforts to change the army court martial system were made by Brigadier General Ansell, formerly acting judge advocate general in a letter to Representative Barnett of Alabama which was read tonight in the house. General Ansell told of one case in which in his desire to serve justice he had been forced to go to a member of congress to get him to place before the president the facts in connection with men sentenced to death after they had been most "unfairly tried."

COAST WIDE STRIKE IN SHIP YARDS PLANNED

Thousands Will Walk Out Before End of Week

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 19.—Union leaders in the strike of 25,000 ship yard workers here expect action at the Portland convention of the Pacific Coast Metal Trades Council that will result in a coast wide strike in the ship yards.

Bulletins posted in metal trades headquarters here today carried this announcement:

"Word received from the Portland district convention seems to indicate that before the week has ended the Portland and Bay Cities will be out for the original demands as well as the Puget Sound district."

Must Return to Work.

Ship yard strikers must return to their work under conditions prevailing January 21 when they struck for higher wages before the government will consider their demands according to a statement today by the ommittee named by Director General Piez of the emergency fleet corporation to settle the strike.

The committee in a formal statement said in the meantime the ship yards will not be permitted to open. The statement said the recommendation had been made that all contracts of any ship yard attempting to open be cancelled and its work discontinued.

Immediately after the workers return to their labor, the committee's statement pointed out, a conference would be called of all interested parties to discuss wage and working conditions to prevail after March 31 when the present Macy wage board expires.

"After April 1," the statement said, "this matter should be decided by men and management as a peace time proposition."

Portland Workers May Strike.

Portland, Feb. 19.—Official information regarding any votes that may have been taken today was withheld by the Pacific Coast Metal Trades District Council. It was said a statement would be given the press tomorrow. A delegate who declined to allow his name to be used declared no strike was voted by the body and asserted that unless the present alignment were broken none would be voted.

The Butte Strike.

Butte, Mont. Feb. 19.—Joseph Kennedy, branch secretary of the metal mine workers International Union No. 800, I. W. W., one of the organizations that declared a strike of miners in Butte on Feb. 7 was taken into custody by United States immigration authorities.

Kennedy was taken into custody by immigration inspectors of the district comprising Montana and Idaho. He is a British subject and has been in the United States fourteen years. He has never applied for citizenship papers according to the immigration officials.

Kennedy was active in Butte during the recent strike of miners and prior to that time had been active in I. W. W. propaganda work, the immigration officials say.

An official warrant will arrive in Butte tomorrow from Washington it was said and until its arrival no details are available regarding the charges Kennedy will have to answer.

Kansas City Strike.

Kansas City, Feb. 19.—The Kansas City street car strike which has been in progress since Dec. 11, will be carried up to President Wilson to C. B. Nelson, secretary of the central labor union who stated today that he and Mrs. Sarah Green, president of the woman's trade union league would go to Washington next week to attempt to reach the president with a statement of the situation.

DISASTROUS FIRE

New York, Feb. 19.—Oil on the water of Erie Basin in Brooklyn this afternoon caused a fire which spread to a dry dock and damaged a score of large and small vessels. The basin became virtually a flaming lake and it was only with the greatest difficulty that the flames were checked.

The flames spread to the Beard Yacht Basin, threatening additional shipping but the chief loss was confined to a tug boat which was destroyed and six yachts badly damaged.

Barth, commander of Camp Grant, who, however, commuted the sentence imposed by the court from twenty years to ten years imprisonment at Leavenworth. Inheritance Tax Bills Discussed By Legislature

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 19.—Inheritance tax bills pending in both houses of the legislature were considered at a joint session of the house and senate revenue committees late today, and other committee work was practically abandoned by members who crowded into the senate chamber to hear the discussions.

Two measures in the lower branch, introduced by Representative Edward B. Lucius, Republican, and three in the senate by Senator Edward J. Glackin, Democrat, both of Chicago, were criticised at today's session and leaders on both sides said radical changes would have to be made before a bill suitable to all could be agreed on.

In both the Lucius and Glackin measures large increases in inheritance taxes are proposed as compared with the present assessments, and the taxes are extended to estates of lesser value. In two of the bills provisions are made which would turn half of the revenue into the county treasuries where collected.

Governor Lowden has openly favored legislation to produce more taxes from inheritances and it is understood that his recommendations will be embodied in an administration bill soon to appear. The Lowden bill, however, is said to send all moneys collected from such sources into the state treasury. A delegation at today's meeting from the Cook county board of commissioners urged the passage of the inheritance tax bills giving counties the right to half of the funds as a means of solving the financial difficulties of Cook county. Their position was outlined by J. Scott Matthews, a tax expert of the Cook county board.

Because of increased expenses for elections, mothers' pensions, etc., it was said Cook county will be unable to meet its annual budget by approximately $955,000 unless relief is given.

The revenue committees of both houses agreed to report favorably on a bill to be presented tomorrow giving Cook county an extension of sixty days after February 28th, the legal limit, in which to prepare a supplementary budget. The plan for an extension was decided upon because it would be impossible to get action on the inheritance bills themselves in time to be of any assistance to Cook county. Even if the time limit for the budget is set ahead, it was considered doubtful whether the new law with the county feature in it would pass.

It was not believed tonight that Speaker Shanahan would be able to hold over enough members for a session Friday morning. It is planned to re-assemble on Wednesday next week instead of Tuesday because of the primary election on latter date.

READJUSTMENT CONGRESS MEETS

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 19.—The Trans - Mississippi re-adjustment congress split into more than a dozen individual group meetings this morning in each of which the subject in which delegates were most interested was the subpect discussed. In each of these group meetings a set of resolutions were formulated and turned over to the clearance committee of the general congress where they will be threshed out and presented to the general convention Thursday. Wherever the question of government ownership was brought up the group meetings went on record as opposing public ownership. Several of the group conventions favored a certain amount of government control over the railroads.

Employment for returning soldiers was approved in a number of group meetings.

WOULD STABALIZE LIBERTY BOND PRICES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Enactment of some legislation designed to maintain the price of Liberty Bonds was suggested in the senate today by Senator Jones of Washinton, who was joined by several other senators in deplaring the fact that the bonds ar now selling far below par. No agreement was reached however, as to what measures should be taken to hold up prices.

Senator Jones criticised national banks for discounting bonds below the figure at which the banks originally sold them to purchasers and suggested some legislation either to maintain the parity of the bonds or to provide for the redemption of bonds of small denominations at par.

Declares German People Misled As to Cause of War

BRUSSELS, Feb. 19.—(British Wireless Service). — Maxmillian Harden, editor of Die Sukunft, of Berlin in an interview in Le Soir of Brussels, declares that the German people were mislead as to the cause of the war. They believed at the outbreak that Germany was in the right and even believe now that right was on their side.

"Our people," said Harden, "did not know and do not now know. They loyally believed that right was on their side. If they had not, they would not have fought and suffered as they did. They believed in a coalition against Germany.

"They did not understand that the violation of Belgium was a crime which turned the enlightened universe against Germany. They are still certain that if Germany had not invaded Belgium, Great Britain and France were ready to do so.

"But it was an old idea of the kaiser's. In one of his outbursts he once said to Leopold II, 'if there is war I shall go thru Belgium. If she resists, Belgium will not exist any longer.'

"It is the thirty years of reign of William II, which carried responsibility for the war. It is the teaching which has poisoned you thus. It is the spirit of militarism that has been soaked into the people.

"But once war was declared it was the kaiser who kept alive the national hatred. It was he who used methods of warfare for which the world will never pardon him. Believe me, it causes me terrible pain to have to admit this."

WILL GREET WILSON BY WIRELESS TELEPHONE

BOSTON, Feb. 19.—Plans for greeting President Wilson by wireless telephone, as he approaches this port on the Steamer George Washington for a visit he will make here next Monday were advanced today by army officials. Co-operating with a radio research laboratory, Major Foster Veitenheimer, chief signal officer of the Northeastern department, arranged the apparatus which will be placed at the disposal of Maj. Andrew J. Peters, to extend the city's welcome.

It may be possible to reach the George Washington when she is from 250 to 750 miles off shore. Whether the president can return the greeting was a question unsettled today because of lack of definite information regarding the equipment on his steamer. A radio telegraph set can be used to receive a telephone conversation and a low range radio telephone set probably will pick up the voice within 700 miles under good conditions, according to Major Veitenheimer, but a high powered telephone transmitting apparatus is necessary to initiate a conversation.

Major Veitenheimer said that it was expected that the George Washington would be within call or radio stations tonight or tomorow and arrangements for the telephone conversation would be completed by wireless telegraph as soon as communication was established.

NATION'S LEAGUE DEBATE BREAKES OUT IN CONGRESS

Proposed Constitution Criticised In Both Branches

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. — Vigorous criticism of the proposed constitution of the league of nations was voiced today in both houses of congress.

Speaking for three hours before crowded galleries Senator Poindexter of Washington, Republican, precipitated a discussion in the senate wrich embraced other subjects and consumed practically the entire session. However, there was no formal reply from the Democratic side. Discussion in the house was unexpected and was not general. Just as the members were settling down for a night session, Representative Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee delivered a carefully prepared address in which he took up the constitution section by section and denounced the whole as abridging the sovereignty of the United States and containing "vicious possibilities."

Deliver Prepared Speeches

The addresses by Senator Poindexter and Representative Fess were the first prepared ones made in congress since the constitution of the league was published and since President Wilson requested that discussions be postponed until he could confer with members of the senate and house foreign affairs committees at the white house next week.

When Representative Fess concluded there was no further discussion in the house but during Senator Poindexter's address Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, Republican Leader Lodge and Senators Knox of Pennsylvania and Brandegee of Massachusetts, all members of the foreign relations committee briefly interjected comment on questions involved in the league.

Senator Reed of Missouri, Democrat, spoke in criticism of the proposal and also vigorously denounced delay in demobilizing American troops. Senator Shafroth of Colorado, Democrat, in defending the war department after Mr. Reed's attack spoke briefly in support of the league charter, declaring it would stop nine tenths of future wars.

Continues Today.

Resumption of attack on the league tomorrow in the senate is in prospect. Senator Borah is ready to speak but may defer his address until Friday. Senator Cummins of Iowa, Republican, also is preparing an address and Senator Reed gave formal notice today that he would discuss the league on Saturday.

Senator Poindexter in his address today declared that the league charter conflicter with the constitution of the United States and meant not only surrender of American sovereignty to European nations, but also abandonment of the Monroe Doctrine. He also declared the league plan involved a collosal burden of entangling alliance and woud breed instead of preventing wars.

The Washington senator particularly attacked the provisions of the league charter for disarmament and mandatories. Interrupting the Washington member, Senator Reed suggested that the league's executive council would be composed of eight non-American members—possibly enemies—and that its mandatory clause would require the United States to furnish troops in suppressing nationalistic uprisings in Canada, Ireland, Australia and other countries. In his first public comment on the league charter Senator Lodge declared he was convinced the provisions for mandatories would be compulsory upon signatory nations. Disputing Senator Poindexter's statement that this was the first time any attempt had been made to restrict congressional power, Senator Hitchcock cited the Canadian boundary treaty.

Senator Knox declared the precedent applied only to boundary matters while Senator Brandegee said the treaty validating the league could not be set aside as could be done in the case of other treaties.

Senator Reed Speaks.

After Senator Poindexter had concluded Senator Reed deplored delay in conclusion of a peace treaty which would make possible the early return of American overseas forces and declared much valuable time had been frittered away at Paris in discussion of a league of nations. He said he favored immediate return of the American forces from Europe and declared urgent demands for shipping should be made upon the allies.

Prolonged applause came from the galleries when the Missouri senator said that if the allies refused shipping the United States would immediately revoke all privileges accorded them. The spectators were sharply reprimanded by Vice President Marshall.

Acquit Nearing of Seditious Writings Charge

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Scott Nearing, one time professor in the University of Pennsylvania and Toledo University and a Socialist candidate in this city the last congressional campaign was acquitted of seditious writings by a federal jury here today.

The American Socialist Society, co-defendant was found guilty on both counts in the indictments. The jury returned its verdict after deliberating 12 hours.

The indictments were based on publication by the Rand Book Store, operated by the American Socialist Society of Nearing's pamphlet "The Great Madness," in which he discussed militarism.

The two counts on which the society was convicted charged the society and Nearing individually with having attempted to cause insubordination and refusal to perform duty in the army and navy, and with having attempted to interfere with enlistment.

The other counts, charging Nearing and the society with conspiracy in the publication of pamphlet had been dropped before the case was given to the jury.

On motion of attorneys for the defense, Judge Mayer immediately set aside the conviction on the count charging an attempt to cause insurbordination and refusal to perform duty in the army and navy. He held that this verdict was inconsistent with his charge.

The judge withheld his decision on a motion to set aside the verdict on the count charging an attempt to interfere with enlistment.

The court room was crowded with Socialist adherents and personal friends of Nearing when the jury filed in after its long consideration of the case. United States Marshal McCarthy had deputies distributed thru the crowd in anticipation of a possible demonstration but there was no disorder.

After court had adjourned the crowd surged about Nearing shaking his hand and offering congratulations which he accepted with a smile. At the end of the impromptu reception Nearing left for his home with his wife.

TAFT STRONGLY IN FAVOR OF LEAGUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—"The gentlemen in the senate who are setting out to defeat this league of nations are those I would not trust over night," former President William H. Taft said here today, at a luncheon in his honor by civic organizations as a part of the program of the Pacific Coast congress to enforce peace.

"They are citing the constitution as an argument against it" continued Mr. Taft. "I revere and worship that great instrument and it is a new story to me if the constitution prevents this people from playing their part in bringing peace and order and happiness to ourselves and the other peoples of the world. This is not a practical question, God forbid. I am glad President Wilson went to Europe because he went bearing a promise of a league of nations.

"The question at this time is whether the whole great plan of the league of nations is to be defeated because we cant' get a two thirds majority of our senate for its ratification.'

DEMOBILIZATION OF BRITISH ARMY OF OCCUPATION

Explained by Churchill at Mansion House Luncheon

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for war paid a high tribute to Premier Clemenceau in a speech which he made today at a luncheon at the Mansion House on the subject of demobilization and the army of occupation.

"Before we come to the business which forms the reason for this gathering," he said, "I am sure you would wish me to express sentiments, which everyone feels of detestation against the outrage attempted upon Premier Clemenceau by some vile hand and our great satisfaction and relief that so far we are at present informed he is in no serious danger.'

The object of the meeting said Mr. Churchill, was to ask the employers thruout the country to do their best now to reassure the men returned in the army that their places would be kept for them.

Will Retain Large Army.

"We have introduced a new scheme," he continuid," for the organization of the army appropriate to the immediate situation under which we propose to retain about nine hundred thousand men during 1919.

"We are letting go three out of every four serving with the colors on Nov. 11, last year, when the fighting stopped, and we are paying the fourth man double to finish up the job. All information received goes to show that the soldiers regard this treatment of the problem as essentially fair.

"We are engaged at the present time in forming a voluntary army to garrison the British empire recreating the old army which served us so well thru all the years of peace and was not found wanting when the hour of battle came. But at least a year will be required to form this voluntary army. At the present time we are ogtaining recruits and volunteers, some with two or three years service at the rate of more than a thousand a day and the rate is rising.

"If we disperse completely the present compulsory army before we got a voluntary army, we should not lose only the fruits of the war but lose the British empire we had before the war.

Must Make Germany Pay.

"There is another reason why we require to maintain a large force for the present year. We have just had a war with Germany; we have spent a great deal of money and have lost a great many of our best men in winning the war and we are going to make sure that we do not have to fight that war with Germany over again. We are going to take measures which will make it psysically impossible for Germany to begin a war of revenge at any rate during our lifetime. We are going to ask Germany to agree to those measures and help us carry them out. And after she has agreed we are going to stand by and see that she does carry them out, not only in the letter but in the spirit.

"There is another reason why we require to maintain an army in Germany for some time longer. We are going to make Germany pay what is rightful and possible in reparation of the damage she has done. Both to prevent a renewal of the war by effectually disarming Germany and to secure reparation on which we are determined, it is necessary to maintain a strong well compact disciplined army on the Rhine for some time to come. That army cannot be maintained on the voluntary basis.

Will Release Veterans.

"We are raising volunteers by every means in our power as quickly as we can but the first use we shall make of those volunteers is to relieve the men maintained in India and other far distant stations at present by compulsion and let them come home. We cannot hold out any expectation of creating and maintaining an army on the Rhine on any other basis in the present year than on the compulsory basis.

"We are not keeping large forces to fight in Russia. We had no intention of sending large British armies to fight in Russia. If Russia is to be saved she must be saved by Russia. It must be by Russian manhood. Russian courage, Russian virtue that the rescue and regeneration of this once mighty nation, this famous branch of the European family, can alone be achieved.

"It is an untruthful malicious statement to say that it is necessary for us to prolong the action of the military services because of an interprise which we have on foot in Russia.'

CHASE GOES TO GIANTS.

New York, Feb. 19.—Hal Chase will play first-base for the New York National League club this season. First Baseman Walter Holke and Catcher Bill Rariden go to Cincinnati in exchange for Chase.

MORE THAN SIX MILLION AUTOMOBILES.

The miraculous growth of the automobile business in a period of twenty years is pointed out with a very interesting array of facts in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"It has been but little over twenty years ago when people paid admission to gape in wonder at a "horseless carriage." Many can yet remember the wag who advertised that he would appear on the streets in one, a promise he jocosely fulfilled by hitching up two mules. Now there are nearly 6,000,000 automobiles in the United States, and in some states there are almost enought to haul the entire population at the same time. Nobody except congress would ever think of calling automobiles luxuries nowadays. They are, of course, widely used for pleasure, but even the pleasure vehicles are used most of the time for the most practical purposes As distance annihilators they have broken up the rural isolation that once made country life in America so monotonous. They have expanded our cities. They have made possible the transaction in a single day of business that once took several. The development of the auto truck has already worked a startling transformation, and it is only beginning.

"It is, consequently, not surprising to learn that automobile making ranks as our third largest manufacturing industry. The manufacture of passenger cars in 1918 was more than 40 per cent less than the year before. This was true to the war. It was found that auto trucks were a military necessity, both at home and abroad, and such factories as were not making other war supplies were kept busy manufacturing trucks. As an example of the large use of auto trucks. In the war, a Missourian writing home from Paris says that the damages to Paris from aeroplane bombardment and the ravages of the long-distance gun were trival when compared with those inflicted on the streets by heavily laden auto trucks, running without legal speed limits.

MR. DAVIS NOT A CANDIDATE FOR MAYORALITY.

The statement elsewhere in this issue by George W. Davis announcing that he will not be a candidate for mayor in the coming election will be read by the public with great interest.

Mr. Davis has the facts and figures to show that his administration was one of progress and the records prove his statement. The simple truth is that during the Davis administration the affairs of the city were handled with a good business judgment for which the public at the time failed to give the mayor and his associates due credit. When the four year period came to an end, the city had much less of a debt than when the term began and there had been also substantial expenditures for permanent betterments.

There is no question but that a very large number of people desired Mr. Davis to become a candidate in the election near at hand and would have supported him loyally. However, in view of the special conditions now existing which he mentions, his withdrawal seems opportune and he has lost nothing of strength or influence by his action. Mr. Davis in affairs political never makes use of camouflage and his statement is clear and to the point.

READY FOR ANY SEARCHLIGHT.

Governor Lowden's statement to the legislature that there is no department of the state that is not open to inspection is wholly in line with his policies and administration. If there is anything wrong with any department, any wastage of money or inefficiency of service, Gov. Lowden is just as anxious as anybody else to find it out. His openness and frankness is of the kind that quickly disarms criticism.

HOOVER STRENGTHENS POSITION.

The letter of Herbert Hoover, food administrator giving his ideas on the packing industry, at least gives answer to the critics who have maintained that his relations with the packers have been too friendly. Mr. Hoover does not believe in government ownership and does not believe in the adoption of certain restrictions or some regulations which are known to be opposed to the ideas of the packers. Mr. Hoover is not claiming in his communication to have made an accurate and final study of the packing industry, but his ideas are so fairly and clearly stated that he strengthened his position in the public mind.

AN ARMY BY ELISTMENT.

The bill which will permit voluntary enlistment to army strength of 175,000 is well on the way to final passage. It is not likely, however, that there will be a great rush of voluntary enlistments now that the days of active warfare are over. It will probably be necessary for the war department to display everywhere handsome posters of the pre-war type, showing men in the service mounted on spirited horses or in other ways displaying the splendor of their uniforms and equipment.

These pictures will not prove as alluring as in the past, for since those days hundreds of thousands of young men have seen both the glitter of warfare and the seamy side as well. Months of hard routine of drill in army cantonments does not savour much of the pictured army service.

NOT PLEASED WITH THOMPSON.

A number of Morgan county Democratic members of the bar are not greatly pleased over the nomination of Floyd E. Thompson of Rock Island for member of the supreme court from this judicial district. Their feeling is based upon the fact that Mr. Thompson, who is but thirty-one years of age, has had little or no experience in the general practice of law, his work having largely been devoted to criminal law, as he has been serving for a number of years as state's attorney of his home county. It is breaking all precedent for a man of his youth and without more court and legal experience to become the candidate of the party for the highest court position in the state.

THE MOTHER'S PENSION PLAN

The Mother's Pension plan has been adopted by more than seventy-five per cent of the states according to a statement in the Springfield, Mass., Republican That paper says:

The extent to which mothers' pensions have been adopted in the United States is brought home to Americans by a pamphlet recently issued by the intelligence department of the British government board. Probably few Americans realize that provisions of one kind or another for the assistance of mothers had been put into effect in thirty-five states by the end of 1917. According to this statement, Massachusetts is the only state where aid is rendered by the overseers of the poor. Nevada allows a maximum payment of $25 a month for the first child and $15 for each additional child. The juvenile or county courts administer the provisions in some states, and the expense is divided between state and county funds. Various conditions govern the granting of this aid. The summarizing of state laws in this country is not as common as might be, and it is useful to have a comparative survey of our legislation from a foreign source.

The Season Will Open Early

That the season will open early this year is an assured fact. The closing of the war removed restrictions and those responsible for Fashion's edicts were ready. Our Mr. Green, has return from the East, where he made an exhaustive study of designs and styles in ladies' suits. Coupled with this is Mr. Green's well known ability in exclusive personal designing. One of the newest ideas in ladies' suits, and certain to be popular, is the long narrow skirt with short coat, in plain or fancy materials. In capes the "Princess", made up in bright colors, will be in demand by smart dressers. In general, everything in browns, small plaids, mixtures and champagnes will predominate.

For the men, everything will be on the double breasted order with trousers in half-peg style. The prevailing material will be browns in small plaids, blues, champagne and grey, and novelty mixtures.

Our shop now is working full time, in both men and women's departments, and we suggest that you do not wait too long to come in and see the new materials, make selections and leave your measure —there will be a big rush with the actual opening of the season and you won't wish to be disappointed.

Rippling Rhyms
By Walt Mason

FACIAL EVIDENCE

All punk emotions leave their trace, quite legible, upon your face. As I go weaving down the street, I size up every man I meet; his face instructs me, not his dress; and seldom do I miss my guess. "That man," I say, "is prone to growl; he looks as gloomy as an owl; he has no checkrein on his bile; it takes an effort when he smiles. His face is like a printed leaf, and all the contents speak of grief. And yonder gent of middle age gives way to foolish spells of rage. His temper is a sudden thing that knows no curb or leading string, and it has made him look quite old ere half his nervous days are told. No doubt at home he is a bear and holds a reign of terror there, though on the street he tries to look as cheerful as a babbling brook. I do not want him for a friend, and so I'll dodge him till the end. That pompous skate who's coming now thinks there's a halo on his brow. His face expresses misfit pride, but vacant is his head inside. No man has any right to be as proud as this old scout I see, unless he has accomplished more than living till he's reached three score." And thus I'm musing as I chase; I read a record in each face, and e'en the victims must confess it's seldom that I miss my guess.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

THE GALBRAITHS AND CLEMENTS

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Two of the well known families of "Old Jacksonville" were the Galbraiths and Clements. Mr. Galbraith lived at the southwest corner of East and Washington streets; Mr. Clement on North Prairie street.

Mrs. Susan M. (Galbraith) Cox, of Berkeley, California has kindly furnished the following brief, but clear sketch of her father and his family:

Samuel Galbraith.

"Samuel Galbraith was of Scotch-Irish descent, and was born in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, Jan. 9th, 1799, his parents removing to Staunton, Virginia when he was but a few months old. So, as he had known no other home until he had almost grown to manhood, he was always proud to call himself "a Virginian."

He lived for a short time after that in Tennessee, when he went to Spencer Co., Ky., to make his home. It was there that he married Miss Sallie A. Crume, April 4th, 1822. She was the daughter of Jesse Crume, one of the early pioneers of Kentucky, a friend of, and companion hunter, with Daniel Boone.

Samuel Galbraith afterwards moved to Louisville, Ky., and often spoke with pride of having been a member of a volunteer fire company which escorted Gen. LaFayette from the boat on the Ohio River up into the city of Louisville. This was in 1824—LaFayette's last visit to the United States. Later about 1837, Mr. Galbraith came by way of Ohio, Mississippi and Illinois Rivers to Naples (or Meredosia), and from there by wagon to Jacksonville, where he went into the tin and stove business. He was also an expert coppersmith, and was called to do that kind of work from near and far, in different states, that no one else could be found to do. But in later years he retired from that business and was engaged in the cultivation of rare flowers and shrubs and trees, of which he was very fond.

He was of an unusually cheerful and friendly disposition, and always ready to help those in need, financially and otherwise. His home was theirs, if they had no other. He died July 28th, 1863, in Jacksonville, Ill.

Mrs. Sallie A. Galbraith, his wife, died in Jacksonville, Feb. 23rd, 1874. They were always affectionately spoken of as "Uncle Sam and Aunt Sallie" by all who knew them and always joined hand and heart in doing for those who needed their help.

They were the parents of nine children, seven of whom lived to be grown and married. Two dying in infancy.

The eldest was Mary Elinor, who married Martin H. Cassell. She died in Chicago, Ill., in 1895, her husband's death preceeding her's a few years.

Jesse William married Adeline Berry, daughter of Dr. Lucian Berry of Winchester, who died in 1857. Jesse W., died Dec. 19th, 1865, both in Jacksonville.

Rebecca Jane married Dr. James G. Cox, of Cox's Creek, Ky. She died Nov. 11th 1868, at her home near Hebran, Morgan County, Ill. Dr. Cox died a few years ago in Nebraska.

Sarah Elizabeth (Bettie as she was better known) married Irving Clement. She died in Jacksonville in 1879. Her husband's death occurred in 1889.

Susan M., married Dr. John C. Cox, a dentist, of Cox's Creek, Ky. He died in 1874, Mrs. Cox is now living in Berkeley, Calif. She was the mother of Annie Cox.

Lucy H., married Dr. George W. Miller, of St. Charles, Mo. She died at Woodson, Ill., Feb., 1888. This being her husband's home then.

Emma Kate married S. Corrydon Hitte, of Nebraska. Mr. Hitte died in 1910, in Florida, near Pensacola, where Mrs. Hitte's home now is."

Jesse W. Galbraith was one of our best known business men for years, and "a man of infinite jest.". He dealt in stoves and tinware, on the west side of the Square.

The Clements.

As noted above, Sarah Elizabeth Galbraith married Irving Clement.

Mr. Clement was born in Newburyport, Conn., July 8, 1831. His parents were Joseph Warren and Mary Fitz Clement, whose ancestors came from England at an early day, and settled in Boston, where several of them held important offices. He was also related to Daniel Webster. About 1835 Irving's father, who was an architect and builder, came to Alton, this state, to superintend the building of some houses, and while there was an unwilling witness of the death of the Rev. Elijah P. Lovejoy.

In 1844, Mr. Irving Clement came to Jacksonville and went to work, as a tinner for Mr. Jesse W. Galbraith; and, in 1856 became the husband of Mr. Galbraith's sister. They lived together until her death, in 1879. Irving Clement was one of eleven children, of whom but two survived him, one being Stephen H. Clement, a well known resident of Chicago.

Irving Clement and his wife were the parents of:

Emma Florence, a graduate of the Young Ladies Atheneum and a teacher of the deaf.

Mary B., who married Mr. L. F. Hitte, and they reside here at the Clement homestead.

Joseph W., who went to Nebraska, where he died.

Eustace J., also of Omaha.

Charles, Robert and Harry C., all of Jacksonville. Harry being well known as an attache in the Ayers National Bank.

Irving Clement was an active business man in the stove and tinware trade—at one time in partnership with Martin H. Cassell, on the north half of the west side of the Square.

He was a strong Republican in politics and took a decided part in such matters.

Mrs. Clement, as the Galbraiths generally, were members of the Christian church and Elder E. G. Rice preached the sermon at Mr. Clement's funeral. He died September 30, 1889.

The Hittes and Millers

Mr. L. F. Hitte is a well known musician here, and his wife was a graduate of the Young Ladies Atheneum.

Lucy Galbraith has been previously referred to, in the "O. J." sketches, as the first wife of Dr. George W. Miller, still of Woodson, this county.

HONORED WASHINGTON WITH SPECIAL PROGRAM

Banquet Given at Grace Church Wednesday Night Marked Beginning of Special Methodist Campaign — Judge Thompson Toastmaster.

The Washington banquet given by women of Grace M. E. church Wednesday evening was attended by a company which taxed the capacity of the assembly room of the church. The program included a number of short addresses by the "Minute Men' of the Centenary movement of the Methodist church, and all were heard with great interest. Two musical numbers were given by a quartet including Miss Margaret Springer, Mrs. Florence P. Hartmann, Prof Hopkins and Asa Robinson, and these added much to the pleasure of the evening. The selections by the quartet were "America My Country" and "To Thee, My Country" Those in charge of the various tables were dressed in colonial costumes and the decorations were also in keeping with the colonial idea.

The menu provided was one which the company found quite pleasing and the women of the church on this occasion added to their already excellent reputation in this regard.

Judge Thompson Toastmaster

Dr. Madden introduced Judge Owen P. Thompson as the toastmaster of the evening. Judge Thompson in referring to George Washington said: "The character of Washington was such that its influence has touched everywhere that civilization is found, until at last all men are understanding some of the principles for which he stood. When a boy Washington had this sentiment hanging above his desk: 'Labor to keep alive that little celestial spark called conscience,' and it was by that rule of life that he governed himself, and by which he measured his work and his conduct. Government is nothing but a rule of conduct, and it is just so long as people observe the rule of conduct and recognize law administered justly and impartially, that there is a possibility of a continuation and perpetuation of government. It is a willingness to abide by the law that has made this country great. If there ever was a time in the history of the world when law should be upheld it is now, when there is such a wonderful change thruout the civilized world.

The Birth of Freedom .

Judge Thompson in introducing the first speaker on the program said: "Judge Paul Samuell will now tell you all about George Washington and Twentieth Century Democracy. That don't mean the Democratic party, I want you to understand that. That is a header—I do not mean better—thing than the Democratic party." The speaker said in part: "I am here for the purpose of reminding you that the man who accomplished most of all toward the building of that institution known as freedom, was born in our own native land in the county of Westmoreland, Va., 187 years ago. Long ago we as Americans recognized that he was the sun of our destiny, but little did we realize that his rays were to illumine the entire world. One hundred and forty three years ago George Washington in the prime of his life, was the man of the hour. Now he is the man of the centuries.

"Little did Washington realize that he was building a foundation on which the world of freedom was eventually to evolve. When he closed his eyes in his final sleep at Mt. Vernon he no doubt thought that he had filled his measure of life fairly full. But Washington should not have all the glory. It was the spirit that he represented, that was found in the breast of every American revolutionist that accomplished the result that no one human being could accomplish alone.

The Drama of War.

"The war of the revolution was staged and called a great drama. It constitutes one of the acts and principal act in that play, and now we have turned the clocks back a little more than 100 years and again we have that same play, only on a gigantic plan I think that we can look forward now to a permanent peace. Let us hope that we can, and that we can in our retrospection look back with a pardonable pride and even boast that it was in our native land that the idea of freedom was conceived, and that we offer Washington and Lincoln as our shining examples of that spirit."

Dr. J. R. Harker was then announced as the next speaker, his theme being, 'The Centenary and Present World Conditions." He said in brief: "We are now in a day of widening and enlarging vision. We see opening doors everywhere, and we are able to see the needs of our brothers here at home and those far away, and to realize there is no difference in mankind. The old idea of struggle and battle is gone, not only among nations but among men. Capital and labor now consult with each other instead of fighting with each other. The merchants instead of cutting each others throats are coming to know that it is to the advantage of everyone to co-operate.

Nations Cannot Live Alone.

"We are finding that nations cannot live alone, but have a co-operative duty one to another, and the world is coming into one great brotherhood. Joseph Cook said the 19th century made the world a neighborhood, but the 20th century would make the world a brotherhood. We realize the meaning of that parable of the Good Samaritan, and are beginning to understand the program of our Lord. What a day in which to live! And it is especially fitting that at this time the Centenary movement was launched, this movement of the entire Methodist church the effort is being made to turn the world to Christ. Our eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord. May we all be ready to respond to this centenary call and meet the conditions."

In his talk on "The Centenary —A Spiritual Dynamic,' Dr. C. E. Nyman gave a brief resume of the aims of the Centenary movement. He said "You will find in the Centenary movement those factors which make possible the generation of increased power. The first information, to bring to the local church and to every member a knowledge of the work which should be done by Methodism. But information is not enough. We must link up information with divine inspiration, and must deepen the prayer life of the church. When the church falls upon its knees and receives Divine inspiration, linking that with human knowledge, then something will happen. The Centenary challenges us to consecrate ourselves to something definite. May there be the decision on the part of the church which will make possible the successful carrying out of the Centenary program."

STILL ANOTHER PLATFORM

Charles DeSilva, who was the first to announce himself a candidate for alderman in the second ward said yesterday that he noticed that a number of aldermen were willing to serve the city without pay. He said he was willing to stand also on that platform and would make a further offer to his constituents that he will agree to expend no less than 20 hours each month cutting weeds in parts of the city where such work is needed. Evidently Mr. DeSilva is not going to be outdistanced when it comes to making proffer of free public service.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Harker expect to leave today for a stay of several weeks in Chicago.

MORE PETITIONS FILED

Four petitions were filed with the city clerk yesterday for the coming city election. The list included the petition of John A. Bellatti and Fred L. Gregory for attorney. Charles DeSilva and William Reynolds filed petitions for candidates as alderman in the second ward.

This is the last day for filing and in consequence it is expected that the list of candidates will be considerably enlarged. Petitions were in circulation during the afternoon for T. A. Chapin as alderman from the fourth ward, and for E.E. Crabtree as mayor.

SEEK SOLDIER MEMBERSHIPS

The campaign to secure 100 soldier memberships at a cost of $10 each for the Y. M. C. A. is in progress this week, with good results thus far obtained. A previous article indicated that it was the desire of the Y. M. C. A. directors to secure these memberships from 100 men. This was in no way intended to convey the thought that memberships are to be sought only from men, and that women are not expected to participate. The fact is that nearly as many women as men are supporters of the Y. M. C. A. work. The 100 memberships will cover the full year period and will be given to soldiers, either those designated by the donors of by the directors. It is a worth while movement.

This is the last week for securing subscriptions to Association Men, the official Y. M. C. A. publication, at a reduction of one third. Secretary Findley is anxious to secure as many names as possible.

LOCAL RESERVOIR SITE BILL ADVANCED

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—A bill to transfer a tract of state land at Jacksonville, Ill., to the city of Jacksonville, for the purpose of permitting the erection of a city water plant introduced by Representative Jacob Frisch, Republican, of Springfield, was advanced to second reading in the house today.

A companion bill was introduced in the senate today by Senator John A. Wheeler, Republican, also of Springfield.

Joseph Estaque was a business visitor in Peoria yesterday. He went to attend a meeting of Industrial Security representatives.

CANCEL AIRCRAFT CONTRACTS

Washington, Feb. 19.—Aircraft contracts totalling $14,000,000 have been cancelled since the signing of the armistice.

During the week ended Feb. 17, about $2,000,000 worth of engines and planes were delivered leaving still to be filled valued at $10,000,000.

LIFT CABLE CENSORSHIP

Washington, Feb. 19.—The navy department announced today that effective Feb. 20 the cable censorship would no longer be enforced on normally routed cablegrams which both originate and terminate in the United States or any of its inland possessions in the Pacific.

TAKE STAND FOR O'LEARY

New York, Feb. 19.—Several witnesses who professed hatred for England but love for the United States took the stand in federal court today in the defense of Jeremiah A. O'Leary, former editor of Bull, on trial for alleged violations of the espionage law.

O'Leary questioned these witnesses himself drawing from them statements that they had attended meetings at which he had spoken and that they never heard him make a seditious utterance.

SEEKS TO CHANGE NAME

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Mollie Netcher Neuberger owner of the Boston store of this city, and one of its richest women, petitioned today to change her name to Mollie Newberg.

It is all because, as a business woman, her attorney says, she has to write the name so often a hundred or more times a day and a shorter name would be easier.

WELL KNOWN YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED

Lieut. Epler Weds Miss Sarah Frankenberg — At Noonday Ceremony—Nuptials of Miss Hazel Moxon and Mr. Harry Scott.

At noon Wednesday Miss Sarah Frankenberg became the bride of Lieut. Earl Norbury Epler. The service was solemnized by Rev. George Williams, pastor of the First Congregational church of Beardstown, at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. G. Rexroat, 1458 South Main street. Only immediate relatives were included in the company.

Lieut. Epler has only recently been released from the army service and the wedding had the special stateliness that only a military touch can give. In the parlors where the double ring ceremony was performed the bride and groom to be stood before a canopy of American flags hanging in graceful folds.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk henrietta cloth made with lace panels. Her sweeping tulle veil was caught back with flowers and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas. The only ornament worn was a handsome pin in the wing design of the aviation service.

Mrs. Epler finished the course in the Jacksonville high school in the class of 1913 and took further educational work in Washington, D. C. Afterward she was a student at Illinois college conservatory of music, graduating with honors. She is a musician special talent and has many graces and accomplishments which have made for her popularity. Mrs. Epler is a daughter of C. V. Frankenberg and has spent nearly all of her life at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Rexroat.

Lieut. Epler graduated from Illinois college in the class of 1913 and for several years afterward was in the employ of C. J. Deppe & Co. He proved himself capable and trustworthy in business affairs. Recently he has become associated with Dr. G. H. Kopperl in the insurance business. About 15 months ago he entered the aviation service and made an enviable record, having but recently received his honorable discharge. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Epler of Beardstown and so comes from one of the best known families of Cass county.

Lieut. and Mrs. Epler left for a trip which will take them to Chicago and other points in the north. Following their return they will be at home to their friends at 1458 South Main street. The parents of the groom were among those here for the wedding.

Scott-Moxon.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Moxon and Mr. Harry Scott was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Moxon, 854 West College avenue, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Only immediate relatives of the young people were witnesses at the pretty ceremony. The service was said by Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick, pastor of West Jacksonville district.

The parlor where the ceremony was performed was appropriately decorated and following the words of the service most hearty congratulations were given. The bride wore a handsome gown of blue charmeuse satin. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moxon and has spent all of her life in Morgan county, the family home having been in this city for more than ten years.

Mrs. Scott was a member of the graduating class of the Jacksonville high school in 1915 and made an excellent record while in school. Altogether she is a young woman of charming spirit and strong character, and Mr. Scott can indeed be counted fortunate.

Mr. Scott is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott, now residents of Pine street, the family home having been changed from a farm west of the city just a few months since. He was educated in the local schools and is a young man of worth and ability. Both families are well known in the county and Mr. and Mrs. Scott will begin their married life under very happy auspices.

The bride and groom left on an afternoon train for a wedding trip and after March 1 will be at home on a farm near New Berlin.

building for incriminating documents is being made.

Lansing Conveys Sympathy

Secretary Lansing called at the Clemenceau home to convey the sympathy of the American commission and the American people. After his visit he said that in order to allay the very natural apprehension that might be created as to the effect of the attack upon the French premier on the work of the peace confrence, it was his opinion and that of others with whom he had conferred that the conference work had been so well organized by M. Clemenceau and had progressed to such an advanced stage that most of it now was in committee and would continue virtualy without interruption.

NATION'S LEAGUE DEBATE BREAKS OUT IN CONGRESS

was mad public, Senator Poindexter of Washington, Republican today declared the entrance of the United States into the league would mean a surrender of American rights, privileges and sovereignty, the abandonment of the Monroe Doctrine and a violation of the constitution. The constitution of the league, he asserted, was conflicting, indefinite and uncertain and the machinery which it proposes to set up "similar to the soviet government of Russia."

"No such collossal burden or entangling alliance was ever before conceived in the world," the senator said. "Instead of being an instrument of peace, it is the fertile seed of war—the dragon's teeth from which, when sown armed soldiers will spring."

Through participation in the drafting the league's constitution, Senator Poindexter declared the United States had been led to a point where w are now facing an abyss. "If the senate should ratify the proposed constitution and sanction the entrance of the United States into a league of nations without submission of the question to the American peple in a political campaign where it shall have been made the issue and upon which they will have an opportunity to render judgment in an election," he declared, "the self-government in America will have disappeared.

People Must Decide.

"In adopting or rejecting this constitution," said Mr. Poindexter, "and thereby becoming or not becoming a member of the league established under it, the government and the people of the United States will determine whether they are to remain the great sovereign and independent nation, a people controlling their own destiny, determining for themselves the extent of their military preparations, the size of their armies and navies and establishing for themselves their international relations; or whether they are to merge their destinies with those of other nations of the world, sharing their burdens, participating in their quarrels and becoming a party to all international complications."

Young men resident in Illinois college dormitory were entertained Wednesday night by Pres. C. H. Rammelkamp at his residece. There were between 25 and 30 students present, and the hours were passed in a very interesting way. Elzie Bown, a college junior, provided some worth while entertainment, thru stunts of memory. Mr. Bown has a remarkable memory and his feats were almost mystifying. A suggestion of his special ability along this line is found in the fact that he could listen to all in the company, relate the year and date of their births, and then afterward without having made notation, repeat the days, dates and years with absolute accuracy. This was only one of the various tests the boys gave him. Refreshments of a generous kind were served and the event was in very way pleasant.

hite Hall, Feb. 19.— J. Wes y, a local business man, well n all over Greene county political activities in the past gone to Texas to lay claim to nterest in a $500,000 estate behalf of himself and Mrs. les Hutchens of White Hall. J. W. Chipchase of Jackson- and a party named Short of ed. Mrs. Chipchase is said ave the largest claim, one- th of a third part of the es- which belonged to Andrew tton, who was drowned when rman submarine sunk a mer- t vessel in European waters fall. His estate is valued rom $500,000 to $1,00,000.

Sutton made his home in Mexico for many years, taking up his residence in San Antonio, Texas, about five years ago, where he resided with his aged mother, who died not long after he established his home there. His private papers were left in safe keeping at San Antonio, where he claimed legal residence, and he spent much of his time traveling over the world. His estate went into probate court at San Antonio for settlement. More than a month had elapsed when news of his death reached Mexico last December, since which time search for the heirs was begun. Just what oil, mine and other properties Sutton owned in Mexico is not definitely known, beyond the meagre details contained in his private papers. He was generally looked upon, however, as a man of much wealth. He was identified with large oil development operations in the Tampico region, where he spent a part of his time.

White Hall Notes.

It is reported that Edward North is planning to return to White Hall with his family as soon as their two sons, William and John return from overseas and receive their discharges. Both have been at the front from the time the war began on part of America, excepting that William was assigned to lecturing on machine gun practice for a large part of the time. The Norths have resided at Houston, Texas, since Edward sold his interest in the People's Bank and left White Hall about six years ago. He was very prominent in the affairs of White Hall for the greater part of his life, and his decision to return will be received as glad tidings.

A body of young men have opened a club room over the Weis ice cream parlor, and style themselves the Fresh Fish Club.

Mrs. Amy Darnley has resigned as bookkeeper for the Central Union Telephone Co., to accept a position as stenographer with the Eli Bridge Co., at Roodhouse, being succeeded at White Hall by Mrs. Herman Teter.

Miss Lottie Munger, who is spending the winter in St. Louis, has been spending a few days with friends.

Henry Hough of Hardtner, Kansas, was a recent visitor.

The Superior Flour Mills, one of the widely known industrial institutions of White Hall, has been sold by A. J. Barnett to George Minier and C. C. Hanks of Pearl, and the new owners will take possession April 1st. Two elevators continuous to the mill, also owned by Mr. Barnett, were included in the deal, which aggregates about $30,000. Mr. Barnett gets 320 acres of land near Straut station, Pike county, Illinois, which he will utilize for stock raising. The transaction is announced by H. S. Greer, a local real estate man. Mr. Minier is the banker at Pearl and Mr. Hanks is engaged in the poultry business there. Mr. Barnett has other interests hereabouts to which he will henceforth devote his time along with his new acquisition in Pike county. The Superior Mills have a daily capacity of 125 barrels, and the elevator facilities have a storage capacity of 30,000 bushels or more. The mills have established a splendid reputation under Frank Frech, for many years connected with the milling interests of Carrollton and White Hall, and there is considerable interest as to his retention by the new owners.

Prominent Families United.

The wedding of Wayne L. Knight and Miss Ruth Irene Boyd was solemnized quietly and simply at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Leo Howard the pastor. Only members of the immediate families were witnesses. The couple left on the C. & A. Hummer at midnight for Chicago, and will return to White Hall in a few days to reside.

The groom is a son of A. E. Knight and the bride is the daughter of G. W. Boyd. Both came from substantial families of this city, connected with live stock and agricultural interests extensively and the young couple start out under the most favorable circumstances.

Remains Brought from Carlinville

The remains of Mrs. Willis Walker were brought here from Carlinville Tuesday evening, and funeral services were held in the Fist Baptist church at 2 o'clock Wednesday, followed by interment in the White Hall cemetery.

Mrs. Walker was a victim of pneumonia. The family moved to Carlinville last October, where Mr. Walker has been engaged in the repair business in connection with a Ford garage. Influenza attacked the family in December, and the wife and five children were victims. The husband was forced to give up business and give undivided attention to his family owing to inability to secure help. She was the daughter of Jefferson Lawson, now a resident of Patterson, this county, and her age was 34 years. Her death occurred Sunday.

Game Law Legislation.

F. I. Trunnels, vice president of the Illinois Sportsmen's League went over to Springfield Wednesday to attend a conference of sportsmen with reference to pending legislation concerning the game law of Illinois.

L. D. Whiteside, secretary of the Greene County Sportsmen's League, is seeking full information regarding the federal game law as it now stands in order to properly inform the local sportsmen. He is in receipt of the following letter from Congressman H. T. Rainey: "Your letter of inquiry is received. The supreme court has not declared the federal game law unconstitutional. Recently a case, which went up from Kansas, was dismissed for the reason that the particular game law from which the appeal was taken has now been repealed. The game law is now based upon a treaty between the United States anad Canada, and its validity has not yet been tested in the supreme court. Spring shooting is prohibited as I understand it. I will, however, have the department send you full information." Up to the hour of posting this news letter, Secretary Whiteside had not received the data from the department, but he is ready to impart any information that he receives.

Vote on Community High School.

Rollin L. Scott, county superintendent of schools, has ordered that an election be held within ten days, the date being fixed for Saturday, March 1st, in response to a petition for an advisory vote on the proposition of erecting a community high school, embracing territory somewhat at variance with the White Hall school district. If the advisory vote carries, the next step will be the election of a board of education for the new district, and this board will fix the amount of the bonds to be voted on, all of which proceedings may and probably will be carried out within thirty days, as no sentiment of any extent has thus far appeared against the proposition. Estimates now vary from $50,000 to $60,000.

REVENUE MEN HERE TO GIVE PUBLIC ADVICE

Opportunity Offered For Securing Information About Income Tax Schedules—Temporary Office Opened For Few Days at Grand Jury Room in Court House.

J. B. Sikking of Decatur and M. T. Kiggins of Hillsboro, special representatives of the revenue department, are in the city to give advice to all persons desiring it about their income taxes. Mr. Pickering, internal revenue collector, is sending his deputies here in order to help the people determine their individual liability and to comply with the law's requirements as to the 1918 incomes. Mr. Sikking and Mr. Kiggins can be found in the grand jury room at the court house between the hours of 8:30 a. m., and 4:30 p. m. today, Friday and Saturday. It is a requirement that payment of income tax must be made this year by March 15.

Must Pay Earlier.

One new feature is that in making a return at least 25 per cent of the computed tax must be sent with the return. If the tax payer so desires he may send the entire amount as computed with the return, or otherwise he can make it in four payments. Heretofore no remittance was necessary with the return as filed and the payments were not expected until June. There are various other new points in the law and the people of this county will do well to take advantage of the opportunity thus offered them to get at the right manner of procedure.

"This free advisory service," writes Collector Pickering, "is planned for those who are required for the first time to consider their liability and to make sworn returns.

"Many thousands who were not affected by the prior federal laws taxing incomes must this year file returns. Here are the requirements:

'Every unmarried person who had a net income of $1,000 or over during 1918; and every married person who, together with wife (or husband) and minor children, had a net income of $2,000 in 1918.'

"The advice and services of the deputy collector are entirely free, and he is authorized to administer the oath required on returns, free of charge. Persons who are taxable should make payment when filing their returns by attaching check or money order.

"This tax is a war burden; it is a part of the price of victory, the greatest victory that the world has known. I believe the people of this district will meet it fully; and I am offering every facility of my office to aid them to determine their individual

In talking about the revenue tax and collection Mr. Sikking said yesterday:

"File anad pay by March 15th" is the new slogan of the internal revenue bureau. Collector J. L. Pickering is preparing to handle the flood of income tax payments that will reach him between now and the close of business on Saturday, March 15th.

"Early payment of income taxes is of the utmost importance in meeting the treasury's debts brought about by the war. The new law names March 15th as the first payment date because there are large obligations outstanding in the form of certificates of indebtedness that must be met on that date.

"The earlier payment this year should cause no hardship to taxpayers, who generally speaking, have anticipated the enactment of the new law and have set aside a reserve from 1918 income to meet the government tax.

Co-Operation Needed.

"What is needed now is another practical display of that great spirit of co-operation which has carried over the top every big governmental objective that had to do with the winning of the war. The persons and corporations who are called upon by the new law to pay incomes and war excess profits taxes on 1918 income have a great, vital duty to perform. That it will be done in the thorough American way is a foregone conclusion.

"Every taxpayers who can possibly do so is urged to pay his entire tax when filing his return, on or before March 15th. The installment method, by which one-quarter of the amount may be paid at that time, followed by quarterly payments on June 15th, Sept. 15th and Dec. 15th, is intended for taxpapers whose financing of the tax at one time would tend to upset local financial conditions.

"Don't wait until the final due date, March 15th, for filing your return or paying your tax. Let us eliminate the last minute rush, so far as possible. By evenly distributing the load, between now and March 15th, every taxpayer will have a chance to get any needed advice and aid in determining his liability and preparing his reutrn. The internal revenue bureau has placed its entire energies into meeting the needs of taxpayers in this respect. Also, by distributing the load, the government machinery will be better able to stand the strain that this great effort entails.

"Co-operation is the spirit of the time. It is vital to the income tax. Let us all get together and establish another record for Americanism."

SUIT TO RECOVER PROPERTY BROUGHT

Thomas Waggener Complainant In Suit Alleging Contract for Land Sold in 1917 Has Not Been Complied With.

In the office of Circuit Clerk Boston yesterday Wilson & Butler filed a bill of complaint in the case of Thomas Waggener vs. eorge and Augusta C. Waggener It is set forth in the bill that in January, 1917, the complainant sold to George Wagener a tract of land in section 19, township 16, range 9, for the sum of $19,-900.

At that time no part of the purchase money was paid but an agreement was entered into whereby George Waggener was to pay the purchase money in certain installments, the unpaid balance drawing interest at the rate of 6 per cent. It is stated in the bill that no installments have been paid, that the interest on the purchase money remains unpaid, and that the complainant has not received security of any kind for the payment of the balance due under the original contract. It is therefore maintained that the whole of the unpaid principal with the interest is now due and that the vendor's lien should be foreclosed.

Mrs. Augusta Waggener, wife of the complainant, it is stated in the bill by virtue of an agreement made Dec. 27, 1915, has a lien on the property as security for the payment of a certain sum monthly, and is unwilling to release her lien until the said George Waggener has performed the agreements set forth in the deed. So the court is asked to settle the difficulty and to decree that George Waggener shall pay to the complainant the amounts that the records show as due.

LYNNVILLE AID ELECTS.

The annual family dinner of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society of Lynnville was held Wednesday. There was a very large attendance, not only of the ladies but of the members and friends of the church generally. An elegant dinner was served, the menu comprising oysters, and about everything else that is good to eat.

After dinner the annual election of officers of the aid was held, the following being the ladies elected:

President—Mrs. F. J. Schofield.
First Vice President — Mrs. Nettie Shepard.
Second Vice President—Mrs. William Gibbs.
Third Vice President—Mrs. Laura Adams.
Secretary—Mrs. Edgar M. Gibbs.
Assistant—Miss Jessie Masters.
Treasurer—Mrs. William Frost.
Assistant—Mrs. Albert Hills.

Quite elaborate plans were adopted for the work of the ensuing year, on which the society enters with the determination, (Providence permitting), to make it one of the most successful of its history.

A delightful day was enjoyed by all present, and altho the dinner was served free, dues and donations were received amounting to more than twenty-five dollars.

ILLINOIS MINERS WORKING PART TIME

Ninety Thousand Coal Miners in State Said to Be Working Less Than Half Time—Operators Said to Have Made no Attempt to Reduce Wages From War Time Scale.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 19.—Ninety thousand coal miners in Illinois are working less than half time, according to Harry Fishwick, vice president of tht United Mine Workers of Illinois, who blames industrial uncertainty for the failure of the 600 Illinois mines to operate more than three days a week. In some sections the men are working as little as one day in seven, he declared. The average, however, is said to be two and a half days a week.

In rare instances where big mines are filling extensive contracts, work is comparatively steady.

Operators are said to have made no attempt to reduce wages from the war-time scale. Miners everywhere in the state, it was declared, are working at least a few hours a week and, therefore, can not be classed as "unemployed."

Fishwick said agents of the railroad administration at one time had attempted to buy up coal or to contract for it in Illinois at prices well under the scale established by the fuel administration. "So far as I know," he added, "this practice was discontinued when complaint was made by officials of the International Miners' organization." If the government had persisted in forcing down coal prices in this way, he said, there would have been general distress among the miners. With all government restrictions removed, some of the miners fear that the railroads will attempt again to make low price contracts resulting in price reduction and lowering of miners' wages. The attitude in Illinois on this point reflects that in Ohio where miners' officials openly charged agents of the railroad administration with trying to force down coal prices.

Drug on Market.

"Coal isn't worth anything in Illinois," Fishwick declared. "It is a drug on the market. Quantities were stored during the war and this hasn't been used up. Added to that, there is the industrial unrest. Nobody knows what is going to happen. If there was more optimism I believe things would straighten out all right. The present dullness in the coal industry is partly psychological."

Coal operators confirmed Fishwick's statements as to the amount of work in Illinois mines. They expressed confidence that a solution would be found. They said the war had added some 20,-000 miners to the normal number who would have to find employment in other industries. Many new or abandoned mines were opened under the war stimulus and now are unable to survive, they said.

Tonnage figures, compiled by the state department of mines and minerals, show a slump in the amount of coal mined beginning with November, when the armistice was signed. In October 8,-286,000 tons were brought up, in November 6,286,000, and in December, the last month for which figures are available, 6,000,000 tons. January is expected to show a still bigger decrease.

For the year 1918, ending June 3, a record of approximately 90,-000,000 tons was set, and the wheels were grinding toward an even 100,000,000 ton mark for 1919 if the war had continued.

The average normal yearly tonnage is said to vary between 50,-000,000 and 60,000,000 in Illinois.

To The Voters of Jacksonville

For the past two years I have been a tentative candidate for mayor. On Tuesday I circulated a petition expecting to file it and become a candidate.

However, the attitude of the various candidates on the salary question has caused me to decide not to stand for the Republican nomination for mayor.

The maximum salary of the mayor under the aldermanic form of government is $1,200. This salary with the city in its present condition is not as much as I am making at my present work.

A man who is living on the salary would be compelled to discount his warrants. In addition to this would be contributions to various things, so that there would be but little left to show for one's work at the end of the two years term.

Judging from the statements of the various candidates for aldermen there is no assurance that the salary will be fixed at the maximum figure. In fact it is more likely that it will be fixed at about $600 or $900 per year. I would have to give up my present job if I was elected. So there is no inducement for me or any other citizen who depends upon his labor for a living to be candidate for the office.

I am not in sympathy with those who favor the mayor and aldermen serving for nothing, tho some of the advocates are my best friends. I believe that a municipality should pay a man for his services the same as a corporation. I also believe that if an officer gives the service that the majority of people will not object to paying him a good salary.

The plan of serving in public office for nothing is not in keeping with a democratic form of government. Such a plan makes for the election of men of wealth for they are the only ones who can afford to serve. If the plan was feasible and logical then John D. Rockefeller or some other multi-millionaire should be elected president of the United States to serve gratis.

I feel that a man in announcing himself as a candidate for office should be able to give some reason why he asks the suffrage of the voters. Had I been able to see my way clear to run I intended to base by claim for election solely upon my four years record as mayor.

When I entered office in 1911 the city's floating indebtedness was $65,000. Two of the largest items in this indebtedness was one of $6,000 for the land on which the north end wells are located and one for $8,477.08 for the last two wells sunk and equipped by the American Well Works company of Aurora. On the last named bill was accrued interest to the amount of $296.72.

These claims were paid in February, 1912, by warrants No. 1741, 1873 and 1874. In 1913, $2,000 was paid to Bellatti and Barnes and in 1914 the same firm was paid $2,973.86. These warrants were Nos. 3861 and 3573 and were for services in the Jacksonville Water Works company suits, the firm having been engaged by the former council.

When my administration entered upon its duties the bondsmen of W. M. Morrisey had not paid over the $30,-000 for which they were liable. This was collected and prorated on the various improvements by City Treasurer Farrell. In 1912 warrant No. 2918 for $2,000 was drawn and applied to this account. In 1913 No. 3860 was drawn for $3,000 and applied and in 1914 warrant No. 4911 for $10,000 was drawn and applied. In addition to these payment on accounts already in existence when I entered office we spent $26,000 in the improvement of the light plant which today is the best plant the city ever had. When I surrendered the office to Mayor Rodgers in 1915 the city's floating indebtedness had been reduced to $42,000. In 1919 it is over $100,000.

This was done by my administration, not with the assistance of the financial powers of the city but despite them. It was upon these grounds that I was going to ask for re-election. However, I find that the people apparently want to continue to follow after strange Gods. The no salary spasm makes it impossible for me or any other poor man to seek public office. Until such time as the people awaken and decide to pay a man for his ability I must stand aside.

I deeply appreciate the loyalty of those who have pledged me their support. I am proud to know that after serving for eight years as a city official I still command the friendship and respect of so many of my fellow citizens. I assure you that I shall always try to merit your confidence thru the coming years.

Very respectfully,
GEORGE W. DAVIS.

Last year the managers of the tournament failed to collect the war tax on admissions. This must be paid this year both for the present tournament and the one of last year. Tickets will be on sale the first of the week. The schedule and time of starting of games is given herewith:

LOUIS BROWN AT HOME

There was one happy household in the vicinity of Concord yesterday when Louis Brown walked into the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, after an absence of eight months. He arrived in the city yesterday morning and waited until the Q. train went north and took it for home. His time in the army was spent first at Camp Taylor a short time and then at Camp Beauregard, Louisiana with the Development Co. I and then with the Provost Guards till the end of his service a few days since. He is looking very well and is glad to be home again.

The $1.90 Hats shown by FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store are real bargains, and many men are buying them. Spring styles from $4 to $10.00.

ARE BACK FROM OVERSEAS

Ralph Weber has received word that his cousin Harry Jarrett has arrived at Camp Merritt, New Jersey. He was in service eighteen months and was wounded twice, losing one limb. His home is in Roby, Illinois.

L. S. McDonald has received word from his son Leland that he is now at Camp Grant awaiting his discharge. He was with the 379th division and went overseas a year ago last October.

The hard question for hat dealers is, how to sell the broken lots? FRANK BYRNS is trying a cut price sale as an experiment.

CORRECTION.

In the list of officers of the Queen Esther Circle of Centenary church, the vice president should have been Miss Garneda Phelps the recording secretary Miss Ruth Patterson, the editor Miss Helen Ferreia, and the corresponding secretary, Miss Eunice Haerle.

O. E. TANDY VISITED REV. JAMES M. DUER

Latter is Minister of Church in Clarksville, Tenn.—Talked Over Old Football Days at Illinois.

Orien E. Tandy who is convalescing from an illness at his home in the Cherry flats, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. James M. Duer in Clarksville, Tenn., while in the south for the Rand & McNally Book Company.

Mr. Tandy said that Rev. Mr. Duer for a time was compelled to give up his ministerial work because of failing eyesight. He recovered from that and was given charge of the Presbyterian church at Clarksville.

Mr. Tandy took dinner with Rev. Mr. Duer and family and after dinner they went into the library and talked over old times. Reference was made to the famous football team at Illinois college in 1894 of which Rev. Mr. Duer was a member, and which probably could have defeated any team in Illinois that year.

This team was coached by W. B. Conover a graduate of Illinois in the class of 1891 and an end on the first football team that A. A. Stagg developed at the University of Chicago.

Mr. Duer asked about Sam Hunt, Frank Belt, Doc. Dinsmore, Bob Gayle, Frizzell, Perrin, Gordon Carter, Rourke, Petefish, Justice, all members of the team.

"Rev. Duer," said Mr. Tandy, "is one of the most popular men in Clarksville. He is on intimate terms with everybody from the leading banker to the youngest bootblack."

In fact to use Mr. Tandy's old language, "Mr. Duer is a Man's Man." His wife was Miss Martha Chambers, daughter of the late L. W. Chambers ad they have a boy who Mr. Tandy says should also make a famous football player.

UNFAIR PRACTICES OF SPONGE MERCHANTS

Bill Before Legislative Committee Would Prevent Loading of Sponges and Provide Penalties for Violations.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 19.—Alleged unfair practices of certain sponge merchants were disclosed to members of the house judiciary committee by Representative Emil A. Johnson of Chicago, speaking in behalf of his bill before the commitee.

Sponges are bought and sold by weight. Mr. Johnson brought experts from Chicago who told of merchants buying sponges, dectoring them with glucose and sand and salt or other ingredients and then selling them.

The Johnson bill would prevent "loading" of sponges and provide penalties for violations.

Persons often pay for sand when buying sponges, Mr. Johnson declared, adding that sand worked into the sponges is difficult to remove and sometimes scratches the highly polished surface of automobiles and furniture.

"I was always under the impression that the sand in sponges came from the seashore and was there naturally," remarked a member of the committee.

"There seems to be more sand in sponges than in Spinach," said another member.

Such an Aluminum Cooker, extra large and heavy, would probably cost at retail more than you care to pay. But you need it to cook cereals rightly. So we want you to have it—for your sake and our sake—if you are cooking our cereals without it.

If you have this Cooker, our offer is not open. We cannot supply more than one to a family. But, if you failed to get one, get it now. This offer is made for one week only. It cannot be repeated unless Aluminum comes down.

Keep the Rich Flavor Intact

Quaker Oats and Mother's Oats are made from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavory oats. We get but ten pounds from a bushel.

This is done to secure a superlative flavor. Little grains, puny and insipid, lessen oat-food delights.

Now we ask you to cook these luscious oat flakes so that flavor keeps intact. Cook them so they easily digest. This Cooker will help you to do that, as it does a million others.

It is yours for $1 if you send this week. And if you send the sales slip asked for, to show that you are using this delicious grade of oats. You will save enough to buy a great deal of cereal by accepting this dollar offer.

Your Last Chance to Get It

Buy from your grocer five packages of either Quaker Oats or Mother's Oats. Or buy four packages of the oats, and one of either Quaker Best Corn Meal or Quaker Hominy. Send us the grocer's sales slip with $1 and we will mail the Aluminum Cooker by parcel post. Sales slips must be mailed within one week.

AN INTERESTING PAPER

The "Accelerator" Published by the Men of the M. R. P. at Marseilles, France, Sent by Elmer Henderson.

Writing from Marseilles, France Jan. 25, Elmer J. Henderson says:

Inclosed you will find the little booklet published for and by the boys of the camp of whom near 3,000 are at this base.

I shall be glad when the day comes when I will be able to return to the good Old States. France is all right but Jacksonville, Ill., is good enough for me.

The Journal comes occasionally. Everything is read in it even to the advertisements. Hoping to be with you soon, I remain, as ever,

Very truly yours,
Elmer J. Henderson.

The publication mentioned is called the "Accelerator" and is a trifle more than eight inches wide and ten inches long with 16 pages. On the cover is a humorous cartoon under the main heading. In the rear stands a pretty girl; in the center a soldier on guard confronted by a stern officer who says:

"What's your seventh general order?"

"To talk to no one except in the line of duty, sir."

The little paper is full of good and interesting things, many of them readable by persons on this side of the sea. One article tells of the impression an Amrican soldier gets of the French and the terms are very complimentary to our friends abroad. The simple hospitality of the peasants is unostentatious and beautiful and our farmer boys have learned many things in the way of intensive cultivation also seeing how much can be raised from a small parcel of ground.

There is an article on Theodore Roosevelt which is naturally complimentary to the man who tried his best to serve his country in the great war himself and who gave four sons to the cause. Two pages are devoted to athletics, mainly to scores of basket ball games tho there is an account of the starting of a boxing class and an account of a mass athletic where there were a monkey and crab race, relay race, lock step, centipede, rescue relay races. Each company was represented by twelve men in the park and the whole affair was a grand success.

Two highly creditable poetic contributions are respectively, Reveille—Marseilles, 1919, and "A Soldier's Thoughts in France." A humorous production is a letter from a man at Possum Hollow, Ark., to his son in the army. Two columns of humor enliven the publication, a description of places of interest in and about the city and a talk from boys who have been invited to French homes are interesting and a very interesting serial story completes the list of reading contents.

Four pages of advertisements tell where goods restaurant can be found; also picture shows, souvenir stores and photo galleries. The paper costs fifty centimes, about five cents.

LAW IS PROPOSED AGAINST JOY RIDING

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 17.—A fine of from $50 to $200 and loss of the automobile license would be the penalty for using an automobile for immoral purposes if a bill before the Wisconsin legislature is passed. similar measure was endorsed by the judiciary committee of the Milwaukee common council.

A state law is necessary if the crusade against joq riding is to be effective, John T. Janssen, chief of police, told the common couicil. The judiciary committee recommended that the legislature be asked by the council to pass a state law.

The bill was endorsed by Lieut. John Van deErwe of the Great Lakes Naval Traiinng Station. "It is not an army and navy problem, but a civic one, and every community should see to it that measures are adopted to curb it," he said, adding that the federal government is in favor of such a campaign thruout the country. Many cities are adopting rigid measures.

M. T. Riggins of Hillsboro was called to the city on business yesterday.

U. S. HAS DOUBLED DYESTUFF OUTPUT

In Next Three Years Will Be Close Competitor of Germany as Largest Dye-Making Country in World—Must Develop Export Outlet.

Chicago, Feb. 17. — Due to war's demand for dyestuffs, the United States practically doubled her output, and in the next three years will be a close competitor of Germany as the largest dye-making country in the world, according to Robert Alfred Shaw, vice president of the National Aniline and Chemical Company, Inc., and a director in the American Manufacturers' Export Association.

He said attention is being given to development of foreign markets and branch offices of large American concerns. American dye manufacturers not only supplied the enormous textile demands due to the war, but also the need of the American army and navy Mr. Shaw said. In addition, the American exports in 1918 were valued at more than $10,000,000.

Quantity was urged by the government during the war, but now closer study will be given to different colors, he said, "Before the war Germany was producing 900 colors and America now is making 160 of these colors and they are type for type equal to their Germany protype."

"The export trade is a matter to which we are giving deep thought," Mr. shaw continued. "We are establishing offices in the far east and elsewhere at a heavy expense, but we intend to place American dyes everywhere. To this end we will need help from many sources. It is perhaps not generally known that German export goods were subsidized by the German railroads to the extent of 25 per cent in freight reductions. Overseas freights, he said, were important matters to be dealt with.

"It is assumed that the American textile trade intends to support the American dye-stuff industry," said Mr. Shaw. "The world now regards manufacture of dyestuffs as a pivotal industry and that each large nation must be self-dependent. England has adopted a license system which precludes the importation of colors that its own producers can make.

"Right now, however, it is of great importance to the American textile manufacturer that the American dyestuff trade should deevlop its export outlet in order that costs for American dyes may be kept on a party with products of foreign manufacture."

DAIRY EXTENSION.

ARTICLE 7.

Dairy Cow Campaign Endorsed By State Dairy Association.

Resolutions favoring the dairy cow campaign in Illinois adopted by the Illinois State Dairymen's Association which held its forty-fifth annual convention in Bloomington reecntly were the strongest in approval which could be given to the campaign, outside the endorsement which it has received from Governor Frank O. Lowden.

The campaign was launched at this convention by the Division of Dairy Extension of the Department of Agriculture, State of Illinois, and has the educational purpose of bringing the people of Illinois to a proper appreciation of the dairy cow as the "Foster Mother of the World," and a greater knowledge of her products as the most healthful and essential food of mankind.

Resolutions endorsing the stand which Governor Lowden has taken in the interests of agriculture and dairying were also adopted at the convention.

Such men as Dean Davenport of the University of Illinois, M. D. Munn, president of the National Dairy Council and of the Jersey Cattle Club of America, and Charles L. Hill of Wisconsin, expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the campaign for the Dairy Cow, and recommended that it be supported by every dairyman in the state.

Dean Davenport, who recently attended a convention in Baltimore at which reports were given by members of the commission sent by the United States to France, England, and Italy to learn food conditions there, gave an interesting account received from these reports of the dairy cow situation in those countries. He stated that America would be expected not only to assist in the re-hearding of Europe but in supplying the people of the war countries with dairy products until their herds could be rebuilt.

J. W. LANE, JR., RETURNS

A dapper young man in khaki was being cordially greeted about the city yesterday. It was John W. Lane, Jr., just back from serving his country. The young man enlisted last April at Paris Island, South Carolina and spent his time as drill instructor. For efficiency and good conduct he was promoted to the rank of corporal, Aug. 4th and was discharged Feb. 10th his discharge saying his character for sobriety, efficiency and obedience was excellent.

A FINE RECORD

John Delaney of Concord Comes With High Honors.

One of the men who have gone forth to do their country honor and service is John W. Delaney of Concord precinct. The young man recently came home from a long time service. He enlisted April 22, 1917 as a private in the regular army and was assigned to Co. A, 68th regiment, first division with the serial number of 41658. When we find many with seven figures we can see the young man offered his services early in the conflict. He was a Texas ranchman at the time and felt hecould be of service to his country and so offered himself and was accepted at ElPaso,, Texas.

June fourth of the same year he embarked at Hoboken on the steamer "Havana" for France and saw plenty of service and hard fighting. He was at the contests of Cantigny, Soissons, Chateau Thierry, trench zone Montdidier, and other engagements and in all bore himself with conspicuous bravery and intelligence also. His discharge contains highly commendatory language from his superior officers and is a cause for just satisfaction.

He was wounded by shrapnel in his left hand at Soissons and gassed at Cantigny and suffered weary months in various hospitals, so many different ones he could hardly keep track of them. When the Huns would get a line on one the wounded men would have to be moved to another and he was a patient at a number. He well remembers his term in Paris, Bordeaux and other places and today he is weak from the sufferings he endured.

Returning home he arrived at Boston Jan. 29th and was sent to Camp Boyd, Texas, where he was honorably discharged as a first class private. He is at present with his father, Daniel Delaney, Concord precinct.

The Quick Way To Stop a Cough

This Home-made Syrup Does the Work in a Hurry. Easily Prepared, and Saves About. $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions an don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FEW CENTS DESTROYS YOUR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR

Save Your Hair! Make it Thick, Wavy and Beautiful — Try This.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff — that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time — will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—Adv.

MEN-THO-EZE
Relieves Spanish Influenza
FT. DODGE SOLDIER SECURES GREAT RESULTS

Recent research shows that the Spanish influenza germ and the germ of La Grippe are much alike. A remedy which helps one will help the other. For years la grippe has been relieved by grandmother's old fashioned cold remedy of goose grease and turpentine.

Science has improved this time-tried home remedy. The modern MEN-THO-EZE contains not only goose grease and turpentine, but also menthol, wintergreen and other healing oils, whose fumes inhaled, BRING RELIEF IN TWENTY MINUTES. A cold is broken up over night.

MEN-THO-EZE has proven wonderfully effective in treating Spanish Influenza. It quickly relieves the sneezing, the racking cough and the inflammation in the chest and throat. Read this letter from Private A. F. Buckles, son of W. H. Buckles of Fort Dodge, Iowa:

Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga.

"I beg to state that during my recent siege of Spanish influenza I used MEN-THO-EZE with very satisfactory results. Please accept my thanks for your kindness."

Spanish influenza is still with us. Take no chances. If you have a boy in the service send him a jar of MEN-THO-EZE. Also keep a jar at home. Use it at the first sign of cough or cold.

In opal jars, 30c and 60c.

A SOLDIER'S PRAYER

Our Boss who art in Washington
Wilson by thy name.
Our pay days come, with a very small sum.
And our clothes won't hang together.
Give us this day our slum and beans, and forgive us our longings for discharges,
As we forgive those who keep us from getting them.
Keep us not forever in Camp Taylor,
But deliver us back to our homes in Illinois. Amen.

IN MEMORIAM

The little crib is empty now
The little clothes laid by
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arms doth lie.
Go little pilgrim to thy home
On yonder blissful shore.
We miss you here but soon will come
Where thou hast gone before.
Darling Ralph has left us
Left us, yes forever more;
But we hope to meet that loved one,
On that bright and happy shore.
Those little lips so sweet to kiss
Are closed forever more,
Those sparkling eyes that shone so bright
Beneath that pearly brow;
That little heart that beat so light,
Free from all care and gloom,
Are hidden now from those he loved
Beneath the silent tomb.
Thy gentle voice now is hushed
Thy warm true heart is still,
And upon that young and innicent brow,
Is resting death's cold chill.
Thy hands are clasped upon thy breast,
We have kissed thy lovely brow,
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no darling now.
Yes little Ralph has been taken
From this world of toil and care:
Jesus says, "There's none forsaken
And there's no sorrow there"
Ralph loved his father and his mother,
And the Savior loved him too
So he took his to His mansion
"In that land beyond the Blue."
Little Angels there were waiting
To welcome our darling home.
So together they are resting
In that calm eternal home.
Humanity looks on the surface
God alone can view the heart,
So when he takes us to His mansion,
We will know why we had to part.
Let us say to the ones that love him
He has only gone before,
Look ever forward to the meeting,
On that bright and happy shore.
His Aunt Sadie Thurston.

IRON MERCHANT DEAD.

London, Feb. 18.—(Via Montreal)—George E. Drummond, president of the firm of Drummond, McCall & Co., of Montreal, widely known iron merchants died here last night.

ACTIVE TRADING ON STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Pools, syndicates and professional operators as a hole monopolized the broader and more active trading on the stock exchange today, the movement in the main comprehending many specialties at materially higher levels. There were several noteworthy exceptions to the geenral advance, however, rails and shippings making very indifferent response United States Steel was irregular until the close when heavy accumulating caused a one point gain. Much of the bullish enthusiasm was attributed to the reported attitud of congress towards the terms of the "victory loan," the proposed substitution of short term notes of several classes being viewed with marked favor. Sales amounted to 585,000 shares. Bonds were steady all the Liberty issues excepting the 3½s gaining from ¼ to ½ per cent. Total sales $14,250,000.

CORN MARKET STRENGTH NULLIFIED

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Notice that government help in the export of packing house products was about to be withdrawn did a good deal today to nullify in the corn market. Closing prices were unsettled ⅞c net lower to 2½c advance, with May $1.20⅝ to 1.20¾ and July 1.16⅝ to 1.16⅝ to 1.16¾. Oats finished ¼c off to ¼c up, and provisions 15c to 75c down.

The corn market earlier had a decided upward slant owing to the readiness with which offerings were absorbed. The early bulge in prices however, was quickly more than wiped out in the active futures after the change was announced as to export methods for packers.

Export sales for Holland made oats steady.

Provisions like corn gave way owing to altered position of the government concerning foreign business of packers.

YOU CAN MAKE YOUR SHOE BILLS LESS

From Globe, Arizona, comes this recommendation of Neolin Soles.

J. B. Medlyn sends it. He says:

"I have never had my Neolin-soled shoes repaired as the soles always outwear the tops. The position I hold keeps me on my feet most of the time, and I can say that for comfort and wear Neolin is the only shoe sole."

Millions of others who have worn Neolin Soles think with Mr. Medlyn that they are the only soles for wear and comfort. Moreover, these soles cut your shoe bills down because they make your shoes last so long. They are waterproof too. Neolin Soles are made scientifically by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Here's Glorious Relief From Itching Skin Disease

No More Fiery Pain If You use the Right Treatment

First of all, get it firmly fixed in your mind that the fiery, burning and itching that causes such pain and torture, is not a local skin disease. True, the skin is the scene of the attack, but the skin is fed by the blood and suffers from any impurity in the blood.

This explains why you have been so disappointed in getting any real, lasting relief from the use of ointments, salves, lotions, or other remedies applied to the surface of the skin.

The millions of tiny disease germs which infest the blood keep up a constant attack on the skin, and are not effected in the least by local treatment. They must be routed from the blood.

These germs which saturate the blood cannot be reached except through the blood. When you treat the local irritations with local applications, you must remember that to [illegible] feeding fresh germs all the time, to keep the irritation and until the supply germs is cut off entirely, you can expect any real relief.

But S. S. S., the fine old blood remedy, goes directly after the germs in the blood, puts them to rout. This remedy is a blood purifier, and there no disease germ that can withstand its attack.

This is why S. S. S. gives satisfactory results in eczema, ulcer, boils, pimples, or any other skin eruptions or disorder. Thoroughly purifying the blood, clearing it of every trace of disease germ, S. S. S. removes the cause of all skin eruptions, and restores its normal, healthy condition.

If you want relief that is lasting because it goes to the seat of trouble, get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and take it as directed, and satisfactory results will follow. S. S. S. is sold by all drug stores. Special medical advice about your own case can be had without cost, by writing to Chief Medical Adviser, 102 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.
